

Abigail Peterson

CASTING INFORMATION

Character Overview:

Supporting Role

Age Range: 18-22

Ethnicity: Caucasian

Abigail is Simon's 19-year-old-sister. Quiet, steady, and strong in ways that aren't always obvious. An aspiring fashion designer, she helps her mom in the family bakery while navigating the shifting dynamics in her home. Although she is deeply connected to her brother, she struggles with feeling left out when it comes to his condition, leading to tension with her mother, Laura.

Despite the emotional strain, Abigail holds firmly to her faith. She's a calm, thoughtful presence, a young woman who thinks before she speaks, but when she does, people listen. Her strength isn't loud, but it's unwavering.

What We're Looking For:

We are seeking a female actress aged 18-22 who is Caucasian. The ideal candidate brings a sense of emotional restraint, genuine faith, and the ability to portray quiet strength.

Experience level can vary, but we are especially interested in someone who can deliver natural, grounded performances and connect with both heartache and hope. Faith-based alignment is also a plus.
